Saying the Date in Spanish. Saying the date in Spanish is not much different from writing it. Once again, you will use "de" and "del" before the month and the year, but this time you will need to know how to read the numbers.. Unlike English, Spanish uses cardinal numbers (like one, two or three) instead of ordinal numbers (like fourth, fifth or sixth) for every day of the month except the first.

This one-pan Spanish-style chicken gets served alongside roasted potatoes, but charred bread rubbed with garlic makes for an easy, equally delicious side. "The highlight to any dish that makes it Spanish-style is the use of pimenton or paprika—ground peppers. In true Spanish style, we're going to finish this dish with lemon and parsley.
