When DC's editors handed Justice League of America to Howard Porter and Grant Morrison, it caused a stir. Everyone loved the pair's insane writing and dynamic art and it became the comic to buy (at least, it seemed that way at the time; everyone at the comic store talked about it). But earlier at Marvel, there was an X-Men event known as Onslaught, and in its wake the Fantastic Four and the ...

Introduction. Dementia and visual impairment are among the most common medical conditions in later life [1, 2] and medical services dealing with older adults are likely to encounter patients with dual impairments. Cognitive testing in visually impaired older adults is an under-researched area and many tests rely on vision.

Little by little, instead of seeking himself in everything, instead of tending more or less consciously to make himself a center, man tends to seek God in everything, and to substitute for egoism love of God and of souls in Him. This constitutes the interior life. No sincere man will have any difficulty in recognizing it.

(1) The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz . . .—The term “vision,” as descriptive of a prophet’s work (1Samuel 3:1), is the correlative of the old term “seer,” as applied to the prophet himself (1Samuel 9:9). The latter fell into disuse, probably because the pretenders to the clairvoyance which it implied brought it into discredit.
