A common writing assignment is the explanatory, or expository, essay. An explanatory essay describes your opinion on something, the ideas of another person, a process to follow, or an event that has taken place. Rather than criticizing the information or debating its validity, you simply explain it and make it easier for your reader to understand.

By Namratha Kandula, MD. In The Birth of the Clinic, Foucault describes the "clinical gaze," which is when the physician perceives the patient as a body experiencing symptoms, instead of as a person experiencing illness. Even in the era of the biopsychosocial model, the physician's perspective is largely through a biomedical lens where biology and behavior cause disease.
