The International Shotokan Karate Federation (ISKF) is one of the largest shotokan karate organization in North and South America. In 1977, in an effort to spread the study of shotokan throughout the world, high-ranking members from the Japan Karate Association (JKA) founded the ISKF. In 2007, the ISKF split off from the JKA to become an independent organization.

Jesse sensei: I am JKA member, the Shotokan. But I do not claim to represent any official opinion of that honored karate organization. I am surprised that you didn't have anything close to what I learned of the meaning in my early years of martial arts study when I was very curious about the meaning of Osu.
